

LAMBDA was the consultant of the Zamboni Architetti Associati in the competition for the creation of a new protection for the archaeological finds and mosaics of Piazza Sordello domus romana and requalification of southern side of the square in Mantova. The project gets the ex-aequo prize and consists in a new structure for the museum of mosaics that perfectly integrates itself in the aesthetics of the square of the old town.

